SIXTEEN PAGES.

Over in Youngstown they are already digging up candidates for municipal offices to be filled next year. Politics is a game that is always going in Mahoning's metropolises.

It is announced that President Taft after retiring from office will follow the example of Gen. Grant by taking a trip around the world. And if he will accept, Mr. Wilson will appoint him to the supreme bench upon his return.

Now that Ravenna, Cuyahoga Falls, Niles and Barberton are about to receive appropriations for federal buildings it would seem to be well for Canfield to get in while the going is good. There is about as much need of a federal building in this town as in some which are now being looked upon with favor.

Joe Weiss, who cuts much ice in Youngstown as a Bull Moose, is determined to have a Progressive ticket in the field at every election hereafter. Weiss is credited with being irreplicable and may likely be depended upon to find candidates to fill any ticket he sees fit to take an active hand in building.

Congressman John Whitner of this district will be a prominent figure in the next congress. He was the original Wilson man in Ohio and to him is largely due the credit for the Wilson sentiment created in this state. He will be a member of the ways and means committee and a leader in the House who is very close to the President.

After the first of the coming year infirmity directors in this state will be out of the office. They should have been abolished long ago as all the work of infirmity directors had to be approved by the county commissioners who might just as well have performed the tasks in the first place. Under the new order of things every county in the state will be saved the needless expense of infirmity directors, and it will be no measly sum, either.

Former Congressman James Kennedy of Youngstown told the Dispatch the other day that in his opinion Gov. Wilson would be made the victim of the muck-raking news combine when as President he starts to do things. "The minute the interests are set on foot," he said, "they will begin the muckraking and will begin and there will be no letup until Mr. Wilson backs down or is hounded down and out as was President Taft," declared Mr. Kennedy. Now let us keep a sharp eye on affairs and see how near Mr. Kennedy comes to hitting the bull's eye.

Representatives of trunk railroad lines running from Ohio to Washington met in Columbus last week and decided to make a rate for the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson next March of a fare and a half for the round trip. For years it has been the rule to make a half fare rate, but now the tariff is boosted fifty per cent. But that will not keep a great army of democrats from attending the inauguration. They will be there just the same to cheer their chief as he heads the pageant in Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the White House.

GREENFORD

Dec. 12—The Maccabees will hold a social for the members and their families Saturday evening, Dec. 14, in K. of P. hall.

Emerson Calvin met with a loss in the death of a fat hog Tuesday night. The butchering of hogs is about finished in the village.

Charles Bush and E. J. Cook have secured employment in Cleveland.

Notwithstanding we have had fine weather this fall, with the exception of the last few days, some farmers have not yet husked their corn.

Many members of the local grange are attending the State Grange which is holding its sessions in Salem.

On account of the inclement weather on the 5th the benefit social for Charles Clark, given by the K. of P. lodge, netted but $16.

Monroe Bogner is an applicant for the Calla postoffice.

Three Hoffman killed three hogs Wednesday which dressed 334 pounds.

Under the direction of the high school H. E. Erwin of the Ohio State University will be here Friday, Dec. 20, to deliver some lectures. At one o'clock he will give a lecture and demonstration on milk testing. At 2:45 his subject will be "Corn." In the evening at 8 o'clock, in K. of P. hall, an illustrated lecture will be given on "Improving Rural Surroundings." Everyone is invited to be present. No admission fee will be charged. The first two lectures will be given in the high school and sun time will govern sessions. Bring your friends and you will be benefited by Mr. Erwin's presence.

TAXICAB SERVICE

Neff Brothers have purchased a five passenger taxicab and same will soon be in service between Canfield and Youngstown. Charles Kriner will be in charge of the car. Do your traveling in comfort during the winter.—Adv.

Dill R. Young, Jeweler at 20 W. Federal St., Youngstown, has a fine stock of watches, diamonds, and all kinds of jewelry suitable for holiday gifts. And prices for all offerings are very reasonable. See Mr. Young for your needs along his line.—Adv.

YOUNGSTOWN

Three druggists arrested last week for selling a sack of kakaka kakag for violating the law governing the sale of cocaine pleaded guilty and were fined, one paying $100 and two $50. Squire Welsh informed the defendants that a second offense would mean a penitentiary sentence.

This county will have as high as four representatives, and the 23rd senatorial district, comprising Mahoning and Trumbull counties, two state senators at certain sessions of the state legislature during the next ten years. The apportionment of the members of the general assembly of Ohio for the decennial period—1912-1922—was recently completed.

A lantern was upset in G. L. Smith's barn at Pleasant Grove last Saturday night and the barn burned with most of its contents, causing a loss of $2000 on which there was insurance of $1000.

Franklin Schaaf died at his home in Warren avenue last Saturday night, gaged in this county and was well and favorably known. He was a carpenter by trade but until a few years ago when his health failed he was engaged in the grocery business. He is survived by his wife and five children. Funeral services Tuesday morning were conducted by Rev. E. D. Wetach, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church, of which the deceased was a member. Burial was made in Belmont Park cemetery.

The special grand jury failed to return an indictment in the alleged election fraud matter in this city. The regular grand jury in January may have the case presented to it.

County commissioners have ruled that after the first of the year the probate court shall sell no more marriage certificates at $1.50 per, which will mean the cutting off of the pay of the probate judge about $600 a year. And it is proposed to reduce the pay for feeding prisoners in the county jail from 70c to 45c a day. The first action will hit John W. Davis when he becomes probate judge and the second Mr. Umstead when he becomes sheriff.

Deputy Ed. Wright is not pleased because he will not be continued in place under Sheriff Umstead. But that is only natural. Most men when they have employment that suits them want to stay with it. But Sheriff Umstead had friends to reward and he did so.

Mrs. W. L. Buechner, a pioneer resident of the city, died Wednesday afternoon. She leaves two children, Dr. W. H. Buechner, and Miss Lucy Buechner.

LOCUST GROVE

Dec. 12—Rev. Hazen of Sharon spent Sunday with P. D. Calvin and family.

Mrs. Aaron Bishop has returned home after spending a week in Brownsville, Pa., with Rev. and Mrs. E. J. McKeever.

Mrs. Rachel Cool spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. E. I. Roller.

Oscar Calvin and Charles Feicht were in Leontonia Saturday night.

Miss Edna Feicht spent Sunday with Miss Helen Calvin.

Ensign Beardsley and family spent Sunday with Willard Calvin and family.

Mrs. Grant Calvin was in Leontonia Friday.

William Feicht and family spent Saturday and Sunday at John McClun's in Leontonia.

Henry Calvin and wife spent Sunday night at Aaron Calvin's.

Don't forget Sunday school morning at 9 o'clock, standard.

Jacob W. Calvin and son Lester, Grant Calvin and wife and Ensign Beardsley and wife are attending the state grange meeting in Salem.

Jacob B. Calvin had business in Youngstown, Monday.

ELLSWORTH

Dec. 12—The Character Club will meet at home of Jesse Allen Friday evening, Dec. 27. Programs for the coming year are being distributed among members.

Guy Sherwood was in Canfield Tuesday.

Winter comes finding the road between here and Canfield in bad condition even if men and teams did work on it all summer and fall.

J. S. Harding will not take possession of his fine new residence until next spring.

The Methodist Sunday school will have a Christmas entertainment Christmas Eve.

Bagging the Bribers.

It must by this time have dawned upon the minds of the legislative bribers and grafters who debauched their office and shamed Ohio in the famous session of 1910 that crookedness under the state house roof is an extremely risky undertaking. Glance again at the record:

Senator Isaac E. Huffman, convicted of accepting a bribe; under sentence of three years in the penitentiary.

Senator L. R. Andrews, convicted on same charge; under sentence of nine months.

Senator George K. Cetone, convicted on same charge; not yet sentenced.

Representative George B. Nye, pleaded guilty on charge of soliciting a bribe; not sentenced.

Representative Owen J. Evans, pleaded guilty of soliciting a bribe; fined.

Rodney J. Diegle, senate sergeant-at-arms, convicted of aiding and abetting the bribery plot; now serving a three-year term in the penitentiary. Two other agents pleaded guilty on bribery charges; fined.

On the whole, it is a gratifying record of efficient law enforcement; not pleasant perhaps, except in connection with that other record given such wide publicity two years ago—the record of legislative corruption for which these convicted lawmakers must now pay the penalty. The thanks of the state go to the prosecutors who are bringing about this lengthening list of convictions. Their work is to continue and the moral support of every right-minded citizen of the state will stand with them to the end.

The experience of two years ago will not have been without their value to Ohio, as a result, is made an abode of great unhealthfulness for bribers, grafters and corruptionists in general.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

TAXICAB SERVICE

Neff Brothers have purchased a five passenger taxicab and same will soon be in service between Canfield and Youngstown. Charles Kriner will be in charge of the car. Do your traveling in comfort during the winter.—Adv.

SALEM

Bogus check workers have been busy in this city and Sebring. In this town a young woman made a few purchases and would present a check in payment, taking the difference in cash. It is a safe rule not to cash checks for strangers, no matter how plausible the stories may be.

The new lighting system is a big card for the city, visiting strangers saying our streets are the best lighted they have ever seen.

Ernest Lutting died suddenly Monday and was buried Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Costello was up last week for the fifth time charged with violation of the liquor ordinances of the city. Mary has been a most persistent offender.

The contract for the new city lighting system is far from satisfactory with a considerable number of citizens. It appears that the job was let without competitive bidding as the law requires.

The local humane society will prosecute all persons caught abusing their horses. Recently several aggravated cases were brought to the attention of the authorities.

The Mullins Relief Association has $464 in its treasury.

Scattering scandal is contemptible. Ed. Harshman, who brought suit for $25,000 damages against a Cleveland traveling salesman for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections, failed to secure a verdict in Cleveland last week. He admitted on the witness stand that he had similar suits pending against other men aggregating $100,000 and that he had received $5000 from one man.

O. R. Barret has been elected Noble Grand of Amity lodge of Odd Fellows.

Nearly a wagon load of toys and trinkets picked up at different stores by a young girl were recovered at her home the other day and returned to the owners.

There are 62 blind people in this county who annually receive $100 from the county treasury. But the money is surely cheerfully paid the unfortunate.

L. V. Schunrenberger last week attended the anniversary doings of Greenford lodge of Knights of Pythias and remained a day or two among relatives and old friends.

John Kern is a sufferer from blood poisoning, the result of running a splinter into one of the fingers of his left hand.

Miss Bertha Kenrich of Greenford is clerking in the Oriental store.

Mr. Edith Holm, who died Saturday night from a complication of diseases, deceased was born in Mineral Ridge and most of her life was spent in Lisbon. She came to this city four years ago. Her husband and infant daughter, son, daughter, Mrs. Hannah Coy, of the late Jacob Coy, for many years a resident of this city, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Strawn, near Damascus. Funeral services Thursday afternoon with interment in Hope cemetery.

The Salvation Army has the pot boiling to raise the necessary funds to give 150 or more poor people a good dinner on Christmas.

The C. E. society of the Presbyterian church celebrated its 25th anniversary last Friday night when a most enjoyable social was held.

Mrs. Mary Callahan, wife of A. J. Callahan, died of cancer Tuesday morning at her home on Maple street, aged 55 years. Deceased was highly respected by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband, one son, L. A. Callahan, and one daughter, Mrs. Stella King, both of this city.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon from the family home conducted by Rev. W. L. Swan of the Presbyterian church. Interment in Grandview cemetery.

A check for $100 issued by Middleton & Greenamyer was lost by the party to whom it was issued. The finder was evidently dishonest for the endorsement was forged and the money secured from the First National bank on which the check was drawn.

Dr. Jesse Sturgeon has been elected Master of the local Masonic lodge. He is one of the oldest and best informed Masons in the city and will do credit to the office to which he has been called.

Mrs. Mary Burrows, the woman recently sentenced at Lisbon to five years in the penitentiary for abusing her husband, who had abused her shamefully for years, was taken to the prison a few days ago. She was cheerful most of the way to Columbus, but when the prison was reached her nerve failed her and she became a most pitiful object.

Much interest is manifested in the annual meeting of the Ohio State Grange now being held in this city. Grangers from all over the state are in attendance. The past year has been a most prosperous one for the organization, 54 new granges having been organized in the state and old granges have taken on new life. There are now 580 granges in the state, or more than in any other state in the union.

While the night ticket agent at the Pennsy station was outside attending to his duties early Monday morning a thief got busy and stole $264 in cash and got away with it.

A. H. Bailey, for ten years engineer at the waterworks, died Wednesday morning in a Cleveland hospital where he went for a surgical operation. He was 51 years old and is survived by his wife and three children.

Carl Smith, aged 23, was found dead in the room of his boarding house Wednesday morning. Death was due to asphyxiation, gas fumes having come from a stove which had no vent.

About one thousand grangers are attending the state meeting in this city.

Mrs. Henry Kelly died Wednesday after an illness of two years with cancer. Deceased was born in North Lima 71 years ago and before coming to Salem long resided in Canfield. She was married to Henry Kelly in 1859, and he with nine children survive her. Her death is the first in the family for 53 years.

High school senior class girls will wear white sailor suits when they graduate next June.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil for all emergencies. Two sizes, 25c and 50c at all stores.—Adv.

TAXICAB SERVICE

Neff Brothers have purchased a five passenger taxicab and same will soon be in service between Canfield and Youngstown. Charles Kriner will be in charge of the car. Do your traveling in comfort during the winter.—Adv.

Send orders for engraved calling cards to the Dispatch. Fine work.
